Here are five ways you and your County Farm Bureau can engage in 2020 to help create opportunities for Nebraska’s farm and ranch families! Visit www.nefb.org/engage for even more ways to make a difference!

Join FB Act!
Join our advocacy team and help build a larger, stronger voice for agriculture. FB Act members play a critical role in communicating to elected officials to ensure they know where farmers and ranchers stand on key issues. Visit www.nefb.org/engage or text NEFB to 52886 to join.

Legislative Session Kick-Off Webinar - January 29, 7 p.m. (CT)
Join Farm Bureau for a Legislative Session Kick-Off Webinar. We’ll discuss Farm Bureau’s policy priorities for the year, talk legislative bills and Farm Bureau’s position on them, as well cover how you can help make sure lawmakers do what’s right for agriculture. Visit www.nefb.org/engage for more information and to check for future events.

Schedule a Legislative Update Call
During the 2020 Legislative Session, Nebraska Farm Bureau’s governmental relations team is offering to provide a brief legislative update on the latest state and/or national issues and answer questions during County Farm Bureau Board of Director meetings. Contact Whittney Tiedeman at (402) 421-4760 or at whittneyt@nefb.org to schedule a call today.

County Farm Bureau Day at the Capitol
Take your engagement to the next level and bring County Farm Bureau leaders to Lincoln for a “Day at the Capitol”. Don’t just watch the legislative process, be a part of it as you meet with your state senator, interact with influencers, and represent rural Nebraska. Contact Jay Ferris at (402) 421-4409 or jay@nefb.org for more information.

Burgers, Brats, and Brews – March 24, 5 p.m. (CT)
The Ferguson House, 700 S. 16th, Lincoln, NE 68508
Join us for food, fun, and conversation as Farm Bureau members and Nebraska’s state senators mix in a relaxed setting allowing you the opportunity to get to better know our state’s elected leaders. Visit www.nefb.org/engage for more details.
