June 28, 2022 – Special Election – U.S. Congressional District 1

Nov. 8, 2022 – General Election

2022 Special Election – U.S. Congressional District 1

A special election to fill the seat vacancy of Congressional District 1 was ordered by Gov. Pete Ricketts to be held on June 28, 2022. Congressional District 1 is comprised of the following counties: Butler, Cass, Colfax, Cuming, Dodge, Lancaster, Madison, Platte, Polk*, Sarpy*, Seward and Stanton.

* Only part of the county is within Congressional District 1.

The major party candidates selected to run in this special election are Republican Mike Flood and Democrat Patty Pansing-Brooks.

Individuals who also wanted to appear on the ballot by petition were required to submit the necessary paperwork by April 22. Again, Nebraska Farm Bureau has endorsed Mike Flood in this election.

June 17 is the last day to submit a request for an early voting ballot to be mailed to a specific address for the special election.

Additional information about the upcoming special election will be available through the Nebraska Secretary of State's website at sos.nebraska.gov. ■

Vote for Nebraska Farm Bureau Political Action Committee endorsed candidates

The primary election is coming! On Tuesday, May 10, farmers and ranchers will have an opportunity to vote and have a clear say in what they want for the future of our state.

“Too often, politicians play a numbers game and overlook the rural vote. They choose instead to spend their time and resources in urban areas, saying that our vote is too small to make a difference. But the rural vote has shifted the course of many elections. We know what is at stake for our farms, ranches, our livelihoods, and we know that every vote counts,” said Sherry Vinton, chair of NEFB-PAC and first vice president of Nebraska Farm Bureau.

NEFB-PAC endorsements are given to selected candidates for public office, based on their commitment to Nebraska Farm Bureau priority issues, experience, communication skills and ability to effectively represent their constituents. Farm Bureau members are encouraged to support NEFB-PAC’s slate of candidates in the May 10 primary.

This year, the NEFB-PAC endorsed Jim Pillen in a six-person race for governor. The NEFB-PAC also endorsed Bob Evnen as secretary of state, John Murante as state treasurer and Mike Hilgers as attorney general. Three federal candidates have been endorsed, Reps. Don Bacon and Adrian Smith, and District 1 Republican candidate Mike Flood. Paul Kenney has been endorsed for District 6 University Board of Regents and 14 legislative candidates were also endorsed.

“We are very impressed with the level of awareness demonstrated by these candidates about the importance of agriculture to Nebraska,” said Vinton. “They all exhibited a positive statewide perspective on issues affecting farmers and ranchers and a desire to work on expanding agriculture in an effort to grow our state’s economy.”

Elections aren’t decided by the people who stay home, and farmers and ranchers aren’t ones to sit on the sidelines when something needs to be done. Let’s get out the farm/ranch vote this May to ensure that the issues facing agriculture remain a top priority for our elected leaders. ■
